Elements of the Plan

Indicators + Targets: More specific measures of our goals which help us know how well we are achieving them. Some indicators have identified targets necessary to make ambitious yet reasonable progress toward a goal within a specified timeline.

Policies: A definite course or method of action to guide and determine present and future decisions

Actions: Steps necessary to support policies, programs, and projects

Elements of the Plan

Priority Networks: Designated for the roadway, public transportation, and bicycle systems to show where modes are prioritized to improve operations

Transportation Network Maps: Identify possible projects the City may pursue in the next 20 years based on a variety of factors, including the evolving needs of the transportation network, engineering analysis, public input, and available funding

Street Network Table: Inventory of our streets and their future conditions, which will be used to identify right of way dedication requirements

Top Strategies

- Reduce traffic fatalities, serious injuries by focusing on safety culture, behaviors
- Move more people by investing in public transportation
- Manage congestion by managing demand
- Build active transportation access for all ages and abilities on sidewalk, bicycle, and urban trail systems
- Strategically add roadway capacity to improve travel efficiency

Top Strategies

- Connect people to services and opportunities for better health
- Address affordability by linking housing and transportation investments
- Right-size and manage parking supply to manage demand
- Develop shared mobility options with data and emerging technology
- Build and expand community relationships with plan implementation

The screenshot shows the Austin Texas website interface. At the top, there is a search bar and navigation links for various city services. Below the navigation, the 'Transportation' department page is displayed. The main heading is 'GETTING THERE TOGETHER ASMP'. The page provides information about the Austin Strategic Mobility Plan (ASMP), including a description in English and Spanish. It highlights that the final draft of the ASMP policy document is now available for review. A sidebar on the left offers quick links to the ASMP page, including an 'ASMP Español' link. A 'TOP CONTENT' section on the right lists key documents and services related to the ASMP. A sign-up box at the bottom right encourages users to subscribe for ASMP updates.
